Healthy Children Pantries: This program combats child hunger by distributing nutritious foods every week in family friendly environments such as public schools, childcare centers, parenting support centers and other child-focused locations.

Brown Bag Pantries Serving Seniors: This program enables the Food Bank to help low-income seniors and adults with disabilities secure immediate access to nutritious food. The Food Bank provides weekly groceries to thousands of older adults struggling to maintain their health and independence. In the 2016 - 2017 fiscal year, the Food Bank expanded its Home Delivered Grocery Program, providing regular groceries to nearly 925 seniors and adults with disabilities in San Francisco and Marin. The Food Bank provides the food, performs some deliveries and collaborates with other community organizations to serve homebound and mobility-impaired individuals who cannot make the trip to pantry sites or meal programs and don't qualify for home-delivered meals.

Neighborhood Pantries: The Food Bank established a network of weekly pantries to serve economically distressed communities and reach target populations in need of food assistance. The Immigrant Food Assistance Pantries initiative focuses on low-income immigrants struggling with language and cultural barriers. The Community Food Partners Pantries distribute food to families living in public housing developments. The Supportive Housing Pantries distribute easily prepared fresh and packaged products to formerly homeless individuals living in permanent housing with supportive services. Form 990, Part III, Line 4d, Other Program Services:

Advocacy and Education: Food Bank advocacy efforts focus on optimizing under-utilized government food assistance programs (e.g., CalFresh, the state's food stamp program, and San Francisco's public school meals program), eliminating bureaucracy and red tape that prevents low-income individuals from receiving assistance, improving program quality and participation, and offering recommendations to elected officials and community leaders to reduce barriers to food for low-income residents of San Francisco and Marin. Food Bank education programs raise public awareness about the problem of hunger, help mobilize support for government programs and policies that provide adequate nutrition for low-income people, inform and assist low-income households to apply for CalFresh and promote healthy eating and nutrition basics.

Process for Determining Executive Compensation:

1) Goals and objectives for the Executive Director are established each fiscal year in a face-to-face meeting between the Executive Director, the Chairperson, and the Compensation Committee. These goals and objectives are then presented to the full board for approval.

2) Following the close of the fiscal year, these approved goals and objectives are reviewed by the Chairperson and the Compensation committee and discussed with the Executive Director in a face-to-face meeting. The results of this review and discussion are then presented to the full board for their approval.

3) As with other organization staff, compensation decisions for the Executive Director are based on performance (the review of which is described above). To further guide these decisions, the Chairperson and the Compensation Committee review the Executive Director section of the Northern California Compensation & Benefits survey. This is an independent survey published by Nonprofit Compensation Associates that comprises data from close to 600 Northern California nonprofit organizations, over 170 of which are social service organizations. Similar materials (e.g., compensation information for other food bank executives, other independently published compensation surveys) may be consulted as well.

After reviewing comparative data, the Executive Director's annual salary and bonus are agreed to by the Chairperson and the Compensation Committee, then presented to the full board for their review. The chairperson and the compensation committee then discuss the annual salary and bonus decisions with the executive director in a face-to-face meeting.

Process for Determining Officers' And Key Employees' Compensation:

1) Goals and objectives for officers and key employees are established each fiscal year verbally and in writing between the officer or key employee and their direct supervisor (either the Executive Director or Chief Operating Officer).

2) At the close of the fiscal year, these goals and objectives are reviewed verbally and in writing by the direct supervisor and the officer or key employee.

3) As with other organization staff, compensation decisions for officers and key employees are based on performance (the review of which is described above). To further guide these decisions, the Executive Director (and Chief Operating Officer if the officer or key employee in question reports to this person) reviews the appropriate section of the Northern California Compensation & Benefits survey. This is an independent survey published by the center for nonprofit management that comprises data from close to 600 Northern California nonprofit organizations, over 170 of which are social service organizations. Similar materials (e.g., compensation information for other food banks, other independently published compensation surveys) may be consulted as well. After reviewing comparative
