INNOVATING TO END HUNGER

Thanks to you, we continue to introduce programs that empower neighbors in need.

1998

FOOD PANTRY NETWORK

We were the first food bank to launch weekly pantries focused on neighborhoods with greatest need. These farmers market-style pantries are now the cornerstone of our food distribution.

2000

FARM TO FAMILY

We were the first food bank to solicit farmers and growers for donations, greatly increasing our fresh produce distribution. Today the program is the nation's leading produce recovery program.

2004

HEALTHY CHILDREN PANTRIES

To reach more families with children, we were the first food bank to expand the Pantry Network to schools.

We began collaborating with health clinics to connect patients with free groceries, nutrition education, and CalFresh.

2017

COLLEGE PANTRIES

Every week, the Food Bank now provides students with healthy food and CalFresh support to fight hunger and boost academic achievement.
