

It takes a community to end hunger.

Before the pandemic, 1 in 5 neighbors was at risk of hunger. Now, we know the need is even greater. We need continued help from our community to provide food for all.

Together, we can end hunger.

“Creating stability and providing hope are at the heart of Chronicle Season of Sharing Fund’s mission.

We are incredibly proud of our decades-long partnership with the San Francisco-Marín Food Bank as they strive to systematically lift up lives by alleviating hunger and uncertainty.”

– Chronicle Season of Sharing

We would be happy to create customized employee and leadership engagement opportunities beyond those listed above to fit your company needs.
